

From: Nathan Vick
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/4/02 2:04pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

Dear DOJ,

I would like to add my voice in favour of breaking Microsoft into an Operating System business and an Applications business. I think that is the only effective way to get Microsoft make windows more extensible for third parties, more standards-compliant (without embrace-and-extend) and more thoroughly documented. I think breaking them up is the only effective way to accomplish these goals because it is the only way that produces and fast-acting economic incentive.

Nathan
nvick@capcollege.bc.ca

~~>

Nathan Vick
Programmer/Analyst
Capilano College